

Is your Child at Risk??

What is Swine Flu ?

Swine Flu is caused by virus and the type of virus varies every year due to new mutant strains.

How Does Swine Flu Spread?

Swine Flu Spreads via Air through Droplet infection when a infected person coughs or sneezes

Symptoms of Swine Flu

Fever

Vomiting & Diarrhea

Sneezing

Extreme Fatigue

Cough and Cold

Who are at Risk?

Infants & children

Pregnant Women

Old Age & People with Disabilities

How to Prevent Swine Flu ?

Hand washing & Proper Hygeine

Immune Boosting Foods

Vaccine

For children and infants above 6 months two doses at interval of 4 weeks to be given

Contact your healthcare provider for more detail